Whig and Courier.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

C. A. BOUTELLE, Editor.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr. All communications intended for publication should be addressed "Editor Whig and Courier."

THURSDAY, DEC 30, 1875.

The communication from the Portland Press, copied elsewhere, very properly calls attention to the discreditable warfare resorted to by the advocates of one of the candidates for the office of Secretary of State. It is certainly to be hoped that the gentleman in whose behalf such a reprehensible course is pursued, does not countenance or encourage devices the employment of which would be paying too high a price for the office.

NEW HAMPSHIRE. The Concord Monitor says: "The Republican outlook in this State was never more favorable. Our people are aroused as only such outrages as those perpetrated by Weston and his keepers last June, could arouse a people jealous of their prerogatives, and we hear good reports from all sections." Col Hall, Chairman of the State Committee, reports in the same strain. He says there is a very unanimous desire to drop all local divisions or jealousies, and to enter the campaign strong, united and harmonious party."

The workings of the existing banking law known as the Redemption Act, show that its effect is to contract the currency. The amount of national bank notes issued since the first of November is $1,701,229, and the amount of legal tenders retired and the same act in consequence of the additional issue of bank notes is $1 100,094. In the same time the amount of legal tenders deposited in national banks for circulation retired is $2 897,209. The actual contraction in the circulating medium from the first of November to date is $2,095 030.

RESCUE OF A CREW. The schooner Bonnie Ives, Capt. Whittaker from Boston for Eastport, Me., which has been reported as a missing vessel was abandoned at sea in lat 33 long 69, having been blown off the coast by a heavy northwest gale. Her crew were taken from the wreck by the Norwegian brig Oscar, from Havana, and carried to Falmouth, England, where they arrived Dec 25. The Bonnie Ives was 81 tons register, built at Ellsworth in 1853, and was owned by Mr Dyer P. Jordan.

A WORTHY CENTENNIAL CANDIDATE. Our veteran observer and journalist Col. J. W. Forney, is contributing to the London Cosmopolitan a series of sketches of our public men who are talked of for the Presidency. Of our own distinguished fellow citizen he writes thus enthusiastically:

BLAINE. It can be said of Blaine, with truth, that he has all the requirements for the first office in the gift of the people. He is a full, scholar, a superb organizer, and I do not know anywhere a better writer or speaker. He is temperate and good tempered, full of humor, a natural statesman and a large hearted good fellow. If he goes the nomination he will arouse a young America from Canada to California, and put a rapture in the state that will be more make or mar public, he stands with Jay under a [illegible] leadership."

The New York Herald is opposed to the further reduction of the currency, saying: "In 1865, twenty five years ago, under Secretary Dimmick administration, with Gideon Welles as Secretary of War, the army consisted of 12,731 men, say in round numbers 13,000. Our population at the preceding census was 23,000,000. Our population in 1870 was about 40 000 000, and if our army bore the same proportion to the population of the present that it did in 1865 it would amount to about twenty three thousand, or twelve thousand short of the actual number. But we have greater proportionate need for troops than we had twenty years ago." The New York Commercial Advertiser says that "not two thousand men are required to protect the lives and property of the people of New York twenty-five thousand soldiers would say were few enough to protect the lives and property of the advance guard of a civilization that is to extend at every point of our vast frontier."

INTERESTING POSTAL INFORMATION. The Post Office department has received a dispatch from the British Postmaster General, saying that money orders advertised in the limits recent United States largely exceed the usual amount. Please remit $300,000 on account." This unusually large balance is accounted for as the result of the international money orders sent for holiday presents. Twelve thousand pounds only has been remitted before the receipt of this despatch, and the balance will be liquidated in the ordinary course of business. The request by cable is noticeable as being out of the ordinary course. Postmaster General Jewell has to-day notified the British postal authorities that from and after the 1st of January next the department will demand from them the payment of the full cost of transporting Australian mails across the continent which are now transported at an actual loss under Great Britain's construction of the postal union requirements. The matter has been a subject of considerable official correspondence for nearly a year, and the Postmaster-General now makes a demand in the hope of bringing it to a prompt conclusion. The general postal union treaty going into operation in France on the first of January next, the postal union rates of twenty cents per one-half ounce on letters, two cents for postal cards, [illegible] cents for newspapers each, if not exceeding four ounces, and two cents per two ounces for other printed matter and patterns of merchandise, will take effect on the date named. The Post Office Department has ordered an extension of the mail service on the Portland and Ogdensburg Railroad from West Concord to Lunenburg Junction, Vt., 11 miles the service to begin January 1. Theodore M. Vail, now assistant superintendent of the Railway mail service, will be appointed Superintendent to succeed Colonel Bangs.

DEMOCRATIC NEWS. The following squib from that "reliable" Democratic paper the Anson Advocate, shows how the thing is stated in the "organ":—

NO RAILROAD SUBSIDIES. The House on the 16th by a vote of 218 to 33 adopted a resolution offered by Holman of Indiana, prohibiting the House against all railroad and other subsidies in money, lands, or indorsement. This lays out Tom Scott's proposed Texas Pacific Railroad subsidy.

No mention of the fact that after passing that buncombe resolution the Speaker appointed a Railroad Committee which is declared to be "Tom Scott and subsidy all over." We commended to the Advocate—although wild horses would not drag such a confession from its editor—the following despatch from the Washington correspondent of the Boston Herald, which cannot be accused of Republican tendencies:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 28.—Mr. Lamar of Mississippi, Chairman of the House Committee of Pacific Railroads, has gone home to look after his interests as senatorial candidate and is not expected to return until some days after the reassembling of the House. If he is absent when the States are next called, Mr. Atkins of Tennessee, who is second on the Committee on Pacific Railroads, will introduce a bill in aid of Scott's Texas Pacific Railroad, providing for the extension of the Government aid which is asked for that line. The bill names two Eastern terminals, one at Gilbert, Arkansas, and the other at Texarkana, Texas. The bill will be referred to the Committee and at once taken up for consideration. The Southern members will press for an immediate report upon it.

MALICIOUS WARFARE.

Something about Pot-house Politicians.

ALDEN, Dec. 25, 1875.

To the Editor of the Press:

By chance a copy of the Belfast News came under my eye today in which there was an article respecting the candidates for the offices of Secretary of State and Adjutant General, which closed with a remark that if the present incumbents were retained their offices would not be a common resting place of pot-house politicians." I am indignant at the gross unfairness which certain assumed champions of the present incumbents particularly those for Gov Perham are making against their competitors.

Now I say it is simply outrageous for the Belfast News to assume that the battle-scarred Colley, who is or was President of a large temperance association in Rockland, is such a man as to draw "pot-house politicians" about him as associates. Colley is a Lincoln Republican, so far as I can learn, is not the sort of a man who will make his office a loafing place for pot-house politicians. I have yet to learn that Gen Boynton is one to attract idle whiskey guzzlers or beer drinkers to his office. So far as I can learn they are equally as temperate, respectable and deserving as Gen. Murray whom I know to be a worthy man and efficient officer. Why then is it necessary for a paper to give the readers the impression that Messrs. Colley, Heley and Boynton are unworthy men by such a malignant and mendacious insinuation? Is the end of fair play played out?

I can but notice, too the unfair and cowardly policy pursued by these same men toward Mr. Chadbourne, candidate for Secretary of State. It has been stated over and again that his qualifications for the office are far below those of Gov Perham. I know both gentlemen and think I fully understand their qualifications for any position and I have no hesitation in saying that Mr. Chadbourne in every respect is as well qualified for this position as Gov Perham, and I might go further. Gov Perham I have known for many years. I have voted for him in District Convention for candidate for Congress in State Convention for candidate for Governor and favored his candidacy for United States Senator last year. For either of the offices he is better qualified I think than Mr. Chadbourne. For Secretary of State, on the other hand, I think Mr. Chadbourne his superior. I have been a member of the House while Mr. Chadbourne was clerk, and a more efficient, conscientious, faithful officer could not be desired. I am confident that a man who has the ability to succeed so fully in the office of Clerk of the House for eight years as Mr. Chadbourne has is amply qualified for the office of Secretary of State.

But I did not intend to allude to this matter, I did not stop to utter my indignant protest against the malicious insinuations of the Belfast News that Mr. Chadbourne is a man who would naturally attract about his office the pot-house politicians. He is no more a "pot-house politician" than is Gov. Perham, and that class would not seek his company more than that of Governor Perham. Why then, slander an upright man as even can by those who do not know him to think that he is a low man, by saying that he will make his office a place for "pot-house politicians."

The injudious friends of Gov Perham have overshot their mark. Their vindictive and arrogant treatment of Mr Chadbourne has caused fair minded men to sympathize with him, and several men who have hitherto taken little interest, express a desire that Mr. Chadbourne and some one of Gen Murray's competitors should succeed as a fitting rebuke. Judging from the expression of the members of the Legislature that I have seen in this vicinity, Mr. Chadbourne's friends have every reason to be confident of success, and if his success is large the indignants of Chadbourne will take the credit of having done much to defeat it.

I am, Pat.

STUMPING AN INTERVIEWER.

The N. Y. Herald prints a long string of Washington gossip and "special" speculation about the Cuban question and the relations of our Government with Spain, winding up with the following account of the appropriate humiliation of its interviewer by the Secretary of State:

A reporter for the Herald called on Hon. Hamilton Fish Secretary of State yesterday, at his residence in this city, when the following brief conversation took place:

Reporter—Mr. Secretary, information has come to hand to the effect that notwithstanding recent assumptions of peace a war is very possible between the United States and Spain. I have called upon you to ascertain whether there is any truth in the report, or foundation for its statement.

Secretary Fish (rather in ire)—Do you suppose, for a moment, if there was such a movement on the tapis, that I would communicate it to any reporter or any individual? I do not care to speak about the Spanish question. All this talk is premature in the matter of a war with Spain utterly outside the purpose of this Government. As we do not seek war with Spain it only provocation for a war must come from them.

Reporter—Hypothetically, Mr. Secretary, any specific information from the Government in Madrid touching the question?

Secretary Fish—The report of diplomatic despatches from any source is considered private. The Spanish matter is one having a diplomatic character. There is not one word of truth in these stories concerning the difficulty between Spain and the United States. Both countries are on the best of terms and the little difficulty in regard to the seizure of the Colmes in Cuba will be in the best possible way of arrangement and adjustment.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Henry Clews & Co have arranged with their creditors and obtained a full discharge.

In the thirty seventh of "A. O. U. W." is attracting a good deal of attention. It is not half a hundred nor half a dozen but the "A. O. U. W." society.—Gardiner Journal.

The responsibility for the disgraceful article in the Chicago Inter-Ocean, implicating Secretary Bristow in the whiskey ring, is repudiated by the managing editor. The author of the article in question is said to be an ex-employee of the Chicago Custom House.

The New York Herald can't make its Democratic friends understand things. After it has been at the trouble to invent and keep up the third term agitation, it finds it all smashed by a Democratic House. So it has to say, right out loud that Mr. Springer's resolution "was a substantial mistake, because it is for the interest of the Democratic party that General Grant should be the Republican candidate."

Gov. Allen of Ohio is experiencing the bitterness of human infidelity. He smothered his life-long convictions and simulated a fondness for the rag baby because his friends told him that "was a sure way for him to become President. Now those same friends are convinced that the Governor has outlived his usefulness, and that George H. Pendleton is their ideal for a Presidential candidate.

An apologist for Speaker Kerr in the N. Y. Tribune, claims that he was bound to give preponderance to the South on the Committees, because that section represents as it did before the war, the majority of the Democratic party. The Speaker's champion very plainly intimates that the Democratic material in the House is not of the highest quality and closes with this questionable compliment to the party which was to "elevate and reform our politics."

In some of these instances the members selected will probably prove not especially conspicuous; but if the people who elect the numerical majority in the House have not selected worthy representatives, that is not the fault of the Speaker. The fair question, I think, respecting his action is whether he has made as good a choice as he could from the materials at his disposal and in accordance with the rules which limit him in the organization. If the elements which he was bound to consider are not such as should predominate, the responsibility rests rather with the people, and especially with the Democratic party, than with the Speaker.

DR HAMLIN.

DENTAL CARD.

DR. J. P. BABCOCK begins to attend those of sufferers who are afflicted with aching teeth that in a majority of cases in vain, the pain can be instantly relieved, and that with from three to five further painless treatments the tooth may be filled and permanently restored to health. In support of this assertion Dr. B. would say that in no single instance has he ever failed to save every tooth upon which he has a single tooth to save, and during the past fifteen years there have been actual counted hundreds and thousands of them. Honest, defective teeth should never be neglected until they are so far gone as to endanger the health of the entire system. Decay then should be arrested and the teeth put in good condition, if some suitable material—about as pure as Gold—can be procured, and if the teeth are not too far decayed, a very large majority of them can be saved. Dr. Babcock's charge for filling teeth with gold is from $1 to $5 per tooth, and upward, according to the difficulty of the case. Dr. Babcock makes the statement that, to the best of his knowledge and belief, his fillings only one of the last three months have proved defective. Dr. Babcock is fully aware that there are some who will insist on having a cheaper and more beautiful filling, but he cannot consider truthful statements of the facts in such an instance in the slightest degree. Those who advertise what they do not intend to perform, and who claim to accomplish impossibilities, are justly a nuisance. But those who advertise exactly what they can and what they will do, and then perform the contract both in letter and in spirit, are entitled to and most unjustly Dr. Babcock makes a specialty of all operations in operative Dentistry, and a portion of his practice is his patrons and others to avoid unnecessary pain should in the very large majority of operations no pain whatever is in article.

FOREIGN NEWS.

SPAIN

Preparing for the Return of Isabella —Disastrous Results Feared

NEW YORK, Dec 29. A Madrid special says Count Pidoncrostro is in Paris officially arranging for the return of ex-Queen Isabella to Spain. King Alfonso opposes the ministry in this matter He defies the Cabinet, declaring that the ministers may resign, but that she (the ex-Queen, his mother) must have an asylum in Spain. Her residence is to be in Valladolid for the reason that Madrid is not considered a safe place for her. It is now believed this serious issue has been forced on Alfonso by Isabella. The results will be most disastrous. The Spanish army will be divided as once if the ex-Queen takes any part in the direction or counsel of state affairs, and will cause the loss of Senor Sagasta to the royalists.

REMOV

ONLY THE SUNNY HOURS.

BY EDMUND CLARENCE STEDMAN

Suggested by the inscription on a sundial "Horas non numero nisi serenas."

Only the sunny hours
Are numbered here —
No winter time that lowers,
No twilight drear
But from a golden sky
Where sunbeams fall,
Though the bright minutes fly —
They're counted all.

My heart its transient woe
Remembers not
The tale of long ago
Are half forgot.
But Childhood's round of bliss,
Youth's wonder world,
Hopes of Love's first kiss,—
They haunt me still!

Sorrows are everywhere,
Joys—all too few!
Have we not had our share
Of pleasure too?
No! Past the grief and heart-core
No memories dark,
On y the sunny hours
The dials mark.
